John Morrissey Accountants, Inc. Launch New Web Site

May 1, 2009 – Rockford, IL – The offices of John Morrissey Accountants, Inc. is excited to launch their new web site: www.johnmorrисsey.com

The new web site includes an easy to use navigational bar, enhanced photographs, a media library with videos, resource links to educational materials and web sites, and a community support page.

“We are extremely excited about our new web site” said, John F. Morrissey, founder and principal at John Morrissey Accountants, Inc. “As an organization we are committed to serving our clients and our community. For example, one of the pages on our web site highlights the community organizations our company and employees support through volunteerism and sponsorships.”

The new web site also provides the latest tax updates and information. “We believe it is important to keep our clients updated on the ever-changing tax environment, and we believe our web site is one of the many ways we can do that,” said Morrissey. “For nearly 40 years our clients have become our friends, and our friends have become clients. We want our clients to know we are a resource to them at all times.”

John Morrissey Accountants, Inc. provide individuals and companies with assistance and expertise in all areas of accounting, tax preparation and business financial services. The firm has offices in both Belvidere at 774 Beloit Road and in Rockford at 5919 Spring Creek Road. John Morrissey Accountants is part of the The Morrissey Family Businesses.
