JOHN MORRISSEY ACCOUNTANTS, INC. ADD NEW TEAM MEMBERS

The offices of John Morrissey Accountants, Inc. are pleased to announce the addition of four new staff members to their Rockford and Belvidere offices. A thriving client base is responsible for John Morrissey Accountant's recent growth.

The new employees are Betsey Bergstrom, Kristin McClenthen, Cindy Flickinger, and Keary Fry.

"There are signs that the economy is slowly starting to turn around," said John F. Morrissey, owner of John Morrissey Accountants. "I see the growth in our own operations and sustainability in our clients'. I'm excited to be able to welcome such great talent to the company."

Betsey Bergstrom was hired in August to be an accountant in the Rockford office. Prior to joining John Morrissey Accounting, she was with Milestone Dental for several years handling their accounting. She is a graduate of Rockford College, with a BS in accounting.

Kristin McClenthen joined the company in September as an accountant in the Rockford office. McClenthen worked for Sikich LLP for two and a half years. She received her BS in accounting from Rockford College.

Cindy Flickinger joined the company in November as an administrative assistant in the Rockford office. Flickinger had been an office manager for small manufacturing businesses in Rockford and Loves Park for over 20 years before joining John Morrissey Accountants.

Keary Fry also joined the company in November. Fry is an accountant in the Belvidere office. She has five years of experience handling The 3R's Learning Materials Center's accounting and has also prepared individual tax returns as an intern for Sikich LLP. She also graduated from Rockford College, with a BS in accounting.

John Morrissey Accountants, Inc. provide individuals and companies with assistance and expertise in all areas of accounting, tax preparation and business financial services.
